DEATH CLAIMS MRS. MAY WORTH MARR, FORMER RESIDENT

Wife of Late Rev. Maar;
Was Popular In Niles Region

Mrs. May Worth Maar, a native of San Francisco, and once a popular resident of Niles, passed away Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Lloyd, in Oakland. Mrs. Maar was sixty-nine years of age. She had been ill for two months following a fall in Oakland which broke her hip. She had been failing in health.

Mrs. Maar, who will be well remembered by those long resident in Washington township, came first to Niles as Miss May Tyler in 1891. She was wed in Rev. Mr. Frederick H. Maar, then pastor of the Congregational church, during the same year, at the first wedding ceremony to be held at the Niles Congregational church. The church in which the ceremony took place has since been replaced by the present edifice. The old one had been a remodeled school house, and stood nearer the center of Niles.

Following her marriage here, Mrs. Maar was active in the church and social life of the community for eight years. She was well known in Mission San Jose, her husband being pastor there as well as in Niles.

Mrs. Maar was a leader in the church guild, the Sunday School, Choral Society, Chautauqua Circle and in the King's Daughters.

After eight years in Niles, Rev. Maar was transferred to Redwood City, and later to the Calvary Congregational church in Oakland. Following the Rev. Maar's death sixteen years ago, Mrs. Maar was an active participant in the business of Camp Curry in Yosemite Valley. She was a fast friend of Mrs. Curry, having known her previously at Redwood City. Mrs. Maar also was hostess and house mother at the Pacific school of Religion in Berkeley for several years.

Mrs. Maar had considerable repute as an excellent musician. She was organist and leader of the Calvary choir for many years.

Two children, both born in the Niles parsonage, survive her; Mrs. Frank Lloyd, of Oakland, and Sidney T. Maar, of Piedmont, also a brother and sister, George S. Tyler, of Sacramento, and Mrs. Charles Shinn, of Niles. There are several grand children.

Funeral was held Monday morning at 10 o'clock from the Calvary Congregational church in Oakland.

Alleged Post Office Thief, Arizona Prisoner

According to a dispatch received last week by Deputy Sheriff Hugo Radbruch, police in Arizona had apprehended a man said to be "Whitey" Lewis, alleged to be the perpetrator of various thefts in Washington township. According to Radbruch, Lewis is the man who last year robbed the Newark railroad station and the Newark post office.

Radbruch said that Lewis will probably be prosecuted by the federal government at the place of his arrest. He has been wanted on federal charges for some time.

WASHINGTON TOWNSHIP POLICE SEIZE FOUR GANGSTERS LAST WEEK

Armed Quartette Said To Be Responsible For Local Thefts

What is alleged to be a thorough-going gang of criminals in the San Francisco bay region was broken up last Wednesday night when Deputy Sheriff Hugo Radbruch and Constable O. W. Ebright, of Niles, broke into a cheap rooming house in Oakland and arrested four men. Radbruch stated that evidence pointed to the men as the perpetrators of a series of burglaries in Oakland, Washington township and San Jose during the last few weeks.

Those taken in the raid were: Joe Lopez, 33, alias the "Chicago Kid," said to be the leader of the gang, Manuel Rodriguez, 33, Raymond Casillas, and Tony Salcedo. The raid was made at midnight following a long and careful search for leads and clues by the authorities.

According to Radbruch, Lopez, Rodriguez and Casillas, confessed, all implicating the others, to the robbery of Kings Service station at Machado's Corners recently and to the robbery of Marchesio's liquor store in Centerville last week. Salcedo was turned over to the Oakland police, pending an investigation of his connection with a liquor store theft there recently.

Upon questioning, Rodriguez assisted Radbruch and Ebright in the recovery of part of the loot. A radio and grease gun, said to have been stolen from a service station in Mt. View, were turned over to the San Jose police. A quantity of stolen liquor was also recovered.

Lopez, Rodriguez and Casillas were arraigned Friday afternoon before Judge Allan G. Norris, at the Centerville courthouse, on the charge of robbing the Marchesio store in Centerville. They will come up for trial before the superior court in Oakland.

Radbruch and Ebright, in hopes of recovering more of the stolen goods, are continuing their search this week.

CIVIC GROUP HEARS ABATEMENT HEADS ON CWA PROJECTS

Gray, Bendel and Vanetten
Tell Chamber of Recent Work

Although no speaker was formally slated to address the Niles Chamber of Commerce Monday, the members of that group were not wanting in orators, when it developed that a number of the Alameda County Abatement district officials were on hand to fill the breach. Harold F. Grey, mosquito district head, R. B. Vanetten and Roland Bendel, were those upon whom the verbal burden fell. All three are engaged in directing the crusade against the evil insect.

Grey told of the progress being made in various parts of Washington township by CWA workers in draining portions of the marshland that heretofore were a pest paradise. Grey stated that the men employed, although only recently taken off the county relief roles, seem eager to do a good day's work, and that contrary to a wide rumor, they are giving value for their pay. Grey concluded his remarks with brief sketch of the more technical aspects of the work. He introduced Robert B. Vanetten, abatement official in the Oakland district, who stated his pleasure in meeting the Niles group. Roland Bendel, in his enthusiasm as a member of the Decoto Chamber of Commerce, forgot his pals the mosquitoes, and told the Niles chamber of a drive under way to secure federal aid in the building of a new Bell Ranch bridge. Bendel stated that the Decoto group had discussed the project and referred it to the board of supervisors, who in turn passed it along to the county surveyor. The latter told the Decoto civic group that a small piece of land at either approach to the bridge must be secured before work of any sort could be done to eliminate the right angle jog that has proved such a menace to motorists. Action is pending acquisition of the necessary land.

Supervisor Ralph V. Richmond told the civic group of a plan to post all the rural roads with their proper names. He stated that he had submitted the plan to the CWA committee for approval and that action should be forthcoming soon.

H. L. Scott, baseball committeeman, reported on the Niles team. He told of the close of the Winter league, and stated that plans for the team in the spring would be discussed tonight.

President F. V. Jones, at the beginning of the meet, read a resolution sent by District Attorney Earl Warren to the effect that an Anti-Racket council was to be formed in the county for the purpose of encouraging the fearless work of faithful officers in combatting organized crime. The Niles group laid the resolution aside for consideration before endorsing it.

CRASH DAMAGE SUIT LOST BY LOCAL PLAINTIFFS

Judgment for the defendants, Allan Post and S. H. Dunham, was given by a jury in three consolidated automobile damage suits Friday after a two-day trial in the court of Superior Judge R. R. Syer, at San Jose.

The plaintiffs, residents of Washington township, were: Joe V. Silveira and Joe Perry, of Mission San Jose and James Russo. Silveira and Perry were passengers in a car driven by Russo's son, Salvador, when the latter was killed in a crash near Mil-

"RAT-SQUEEZER" EFFECTIVE TRAP, SAYS FLASH ROSE

THE PIED PIPER of Hamelin has nothing on "Flash" Rose, Niles ex-boxer and merchant, who has undertaken to rid Roseville, with its various nooks and crannies, of rats. Unlike the Piper, "Flash" is not depending on anything as ethereal as flute and music. He has traps. Large, complicated traps that seize the unlucky rodents in steel fingers, twirl them around, and toss them into hampers. One of "Flash's" most effective devices for dealing with the long-tailed beasts consists of a pair of discarded goods, which he cunningly props a few inches apart with a figure "4" trigger. The latter is baited with salt pork. Any rodent that ventures into this lethal contraption, suddenly finds itself in the same predicament as a lemon just before cocktail-time. "Flash" declares that large rats are well adapted to this contrivance.

Frank Rose, owner of the property on which "Flash" is experimenting, appears to be somewhat apprehensive. He avers that he will keep his dog tied, and the cat in the house.

RANGE RIDER NABS 2ND DEER KILLER NEAR CALAVERAS

A. P. Lakamp Given Fifty
Days In Bastille
By Judge Silva

Deer are plentiful out of season, but so are range riders, is a lesson that A. P. Lakamp, of 5818 Dover street, Oakland, will not forget for at least fifty days, while he cools his mountain-climbing heels in the county jail after being caught on the San Francisco Water Department property near Calaveras dam Saturday afternoon with a newly slain doe. Rider Dan McCarty seized Lakamp after hearing the shots fired.

Lakamp, a CWA worker on a local project, is the fourth poacher to be apprehended on the Calaveras property in the last two weeks. Judge J. A. Silva hints that the sentence may be even a little stiffer for the next culprit caught.

McCarty, after seizing Lakamp, summoned Deputy Sheriff Hugo Radbruch who took the man into custody. Game Warden Fred Rogers was called to assist in the case Monday morning when Lakamp was hauled before Judge Silva at the Niles courthouse. Lakamp pleaded guilty to the charge of violating a section of the game laws of the state and was given the alternative of paying a $100 fine or spending fifty days in the county bastille. He chose the latter.

Rogers and Radbruch both stated emphatically that no quarter will be given to out-of-season hunters in the south end of the county. Rogers stated, also, that game laws for California similar to those of Pennsylvania would do away a great deal with unlawful hunting. In Pennsylvania, Rogers said, anyone who can conclusively prove that a hunter has killed his game illegally or out of season receives half of the fine paid by the culprit. He said the ruling results in close watch of all hunters. Pennsylvania, almost devoid of game before the new ruling was passed, now ranks among the states having the most wild life.

WEDDING TRIP

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kempton left Sunday afternoon on a short wedding trip. They were married at the Holy Ghost church in Centerville. They will live in Niles. Miss last August. The elder Russo was seeking $25,000 damages for the death of his son. Silveira and Perry, both injured in the accident asked $16,200 and $28,450 respectively.

REPORT OF RED CROSS DRIVE IN TOWNSHIP SHOWS GOOD SUPPORT

Centerville Tops List With Largest Number of Subscribers

Released this week by Mrs. F. T. Dusterberry, of Centerville, township chairman, the report of the annual roll call of the American Red Cross in Washington township shows a substantial interest in the great organization. Mission San Jose, for several years not represented in the drive, is again on the honor roll, due to the energetic efforts of Mrs. Thomas Witherly, chairman of the town this year. Decoto is not represented in this report. Mrs.

Amaral, chairman, states that her returns are not yet completed. The report will be made later.

Centerville topped the list again this time with Niles second. Following is the report: Alvarado, $50.00—Mrs. E. A. Richmond, chairman. Centerville, $122.00—Mrs. Henri E. Salz, chairman. Niles, $61.00—Mrs. Rose Vieux, chairman. Newark, $31.00—Mrs. S. G. Scott, chairman. Irvington, $40.00—Mrs. R. L. Pond, chairman. Mission San Jose, $25.00—Mrs. Thomas Witherly, chairman.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

By NORMAN H. PARKS, Publisher Register

'TAINT NO USE—BUT HERE GOES.

THE editorial columns of American newspapers should be abolished. They are superfluous, under the new philosophy of government. Suggestions appearing in the public prints as to how to cure the depression, avert a war with Japan, or establish permanent administrative functions in Cuba, are none of the newspapers' business. Apparently, it has narrowed down to a point now when one man and a few super-intellectuals are the only people capable of doing political business in these United States. The Senate and the House of Representatives have become but rubber stamps for the executive branch of the government. Even Huey Long is whipped into silence. Republicans are not talking out loud. Democrats are mentally paralyzed by demagogism. * * * * *

Our friend, Rolph, is reported upon the point of spending a week-end at Elysia, Southern California's nudist colony. The question arises, then, where will the happy and irresponsible playboy wear his gardenia? The Register offers a year's subscription to the reader sending in the best answer. With Miss Kent, nudist star, waving a morning salutation from the top of Lookout Rock to the Governor of California as he sallies forth in the crisp morning air should be a ringer. The film would be a knock-out. * * * * *

Driving to Modesto last Friday morning we had a close-up on the way CWA funds are being spent. In Niles canyon a swarm of men were making the hillside as bare as the dome of a bald-headed man. Why? It is hard to say. Didn't make the going any better for us or other motorists. Others were just picking up a shovel of dirt from one side of the highway, and, with great deliberation, placing it on the other side of the thoroughfare. It kept the boys occupied, but not exhausted. * * * * * Over near Pleasanton the workers were sweeping off the pavement * * * * * Near Modesto the army of CWA workers were dusting off the leaves on trees lining the road. * * * * * Well, if we couldn't bring back prosperity by economizing, maybe it will rush in on us by squandering. * * * * *

Japan is now talking peace. With the Soviet Union prepared and Uncle Sam in a bad humor, after being played a sucker by Europe, maybe the wily Jap has decided after all that his bluff may be called. So it is not surprising that out of Washington comes the announcement that the Pacific fleet may be moved to the Atlantic coast, apparently upon the suggestion that it irritates our oriental friend of the Rising Sun. If taking the fleet out of Pacific waters will make Japan quit making faces at Western civilization, it is a slight favor to gain such a happy end. * * * * *

The defaulter, France, dickers with the administration for the importation of her choice wines, and wins coveted imports. It is a fact that some deadbeats can talk one out of the shirt on one's

HOME FROM EUROPE, FRANK FERRY HAS INTERESTING TALES

War Talk Rampant In France; Germany
Silent

Europeans as a whole seem to be a fairly contented lot, according to Frank Ferry, recently returned from a four months' stay on the continent. With an eye for interesting facts, Ferry has brought back a great deal of basic information concerning international feeling. He states that war talk is rampant in France, and contrary to reports heard in America, is not heard in Germany. Ferry states emphatically that the Germans seem much more interested in getting enough to eat than they are in starting a war. Although not allowed to inspect the new French fortifications along the Franco-German frontier, Ferry tells of the enormous amount of money and work that has been put into them. He states that the entire border, with the exception of the Belgian sector, is lined with the new fortresses. A French soldier could start at the French-Italian frontier and travel to Belgium without ever coming above ground.

Ferry tells of the European unemployment, saying that it is not as apparent as the American problem. One never sees the "bottle-stiff" in Europe, and in the general bustle of European cities the street-corner bum is not in evidence. Americans in France did not seem to be such a care-free lot, Ferry said. Many of them were returning to the United States. Tourist groups were few and far between, and the faded American Babbitt, tossing dollars about, was missing.

According to Ferry, European rail lines are excellent. He rode on the Paris-Cologne express, which he said wasted very little time enroute.

Ferry was nonplused at the French and English traffic practices, especially in London and Paris. He states that no mad house could produce more of a din and scurry. Unused to dodging vehicles traveling on the left side of the streets, Ferry avers that he was very nearly run down several times. The famous London fogs do not hinder the British drivers, Ferry said. They dash about without slacking speed.

Back at his work in the mechanical room of the Register, Ferry will have interesting facts to relate for many months. He states that starting a trip is the most difficult part but that once the home ties are temporarily broken, the world takes on a new and beckoning aspect.

Pleasanton Meet Draws Niles Vets, Auxiliary

Niles Legionnaires and auxiliary members made Pleasanton their Mecca last night. The district meeting, featuring State Commander Homer Chelleaux, was held at the Veterans' Memorial building there. Chelleaux was the main speaker for the evening.

Previous to the meet, a parade was held. Members of both posts participated.

The meeting was called to order by District Commander E. Zollner. The meet was open to the public. Many outsiders attended.

Cuttings from the Mission vines and olives were rooted and sent to almost every mining town in California in 1852. One year-old fruit tree sold for 5.00.

Dan Patch, the Pacer

The famous pacing horse Dan Patch was foaled in 1890 at the stables of D. A. Messner, of Oxford, Ind. Some of his pacing records have never been surpassed. At St. Paul, Minn., September 8, 1903, he paced a mile in 1 minute 55 seconds, with dust shield, a runner in front and at one side. At Memphis, Tenn., October 27, 1903, pacing to wagon, he made the mile in 1 minute, 57 1/2 seconds; on the same date he paced a quarter mile in 27 1/2 seconds.

Island Sees Hail After 105 Years

It's a long time between hailstorms in St. Thomas, one of the islands in the Virgin Islands group, according to skippers of Canadian liners. Recently official records showed the first fall of hail there in 105 years. Superstitious natives became much excited and offered prayers, believing a world catastrophe had occurred.

Living Without Food

Scientists believe that the length of time during which a man may live without food depends on height, weight and age. The heavier of two men will produce more heat and hence probably live the longer, other things being equal. Similarly, a tall man will live longer than a small man, assuming that both are of normal weight for their height.

The "Queen of Roads"

The famous road that leads to Rome, the Appian Way, also called by the ancient equivalent to the present-day rubber-necker, the "Queen of Roads," has been made a unit by a span over the Garigliano river. The bridge, one of the finest of modern Italian constructions, is of concrete, steel and limestone.

The Word "Chime"

The word "chime" is derived from the Latin "cymbalum," a cymbal. The old English form "chymbe" appears in many medieval documents. The term was originally applied to bells and the machinery which operated them, but in recent times the music produced by the bells is also known as a chime.

Pawnshops

Pawnshops, like novels, are cross-sections of humanity. Into them come the count and the pauper, the artist and the mechanic, the gold-digger and the innocent victim, the spoiled children of the wealthy and the beggars who have never known anything but the life of the hobo.

Another Use for Rouge

Rouge is even more important in the manufacture of eye-glass lenses than as a cosmetic. Rouge is purchased in large quantities for the important process of polishing the glass after it has been ground to the proper curvature.

Mont Blanc in French Province

Mont Blanc is in the French province of Haute Savoie, near the Italian border. This peak is often erroneously supposed to be in Switzerland owing to the fact that many tourists see it from Geneva, only 40 miles away.

Uncle Henry

By TOM GIBBONS

©, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate, WNU Service

PAT SPENCER slowed the car to a stop and took a quick glance at the gray-haired old man beside her. The traffic light changed to green and she shifted gears and the car started forward. By the set of his mouth, Pat decided that Uncle Henry Spencer was not in a good mood.

Uncle Henry and his niece, Pat, were the last of the Spencer clan of Hillcrest. They lived in the big family mansion and Uncle Henry exerted all his stern influence to dominate the attractive, youthful Pat. "Uncle Henry, let's stop at the ball game—we're just in time," Pat looked at her watch. The crowds were lined up at the ticket windows. "It isn't the ball game that you're interested in, young lady. It's just that good-for-nothing ball player, Hank Weddell."

"Why don't you like Hank? He makes a good salary, and he's a nice young fellow. Besides that he's been darned nice to me," Pat admitted.

"Humb! A ball player—no better than an actor."

"Uncle Henry, I just happened to think. Hank won't be playing today. He pitched yesterday's game." "All right, then we'll go in. I always liked ball games until that young fool turned me against them," Henry Spencer grunted.

As the usher showed them to their seats, Pat smiled to herself—as if the width of the ball diamond could separate Hank from her!

Watching the players warming up, Pat kept a keen watch, hoping to see Hank somewhere on the field. "Oh, look! There's the home team coming out on the field," Pat announced to her uncle.

"Well, what do you want me to do? Stop them? Or give three cheers? That's what they're paid for, isn't it?"

After her uncle's sarcasm, Pat didn't attempt further conversation during eight innings. She watched the game in silence and after the eighth inning she looked at the score board with satisfaction. Two runs had been scored by the opponents to the three runs for the home team.

She was satisfied. It looked like a sure victory for Hillcrest. The pitcher had been throwing neat curves which had the opponents baffled. Three up and three out, then home, Pat figured. Now that the game was almost over, she was anxious to get home.

The crack of the bat against the ball caused Pat to drop her powder puff and take renewed interest in the game. The runner was rounding second, starting to third, but decided he couldn't make it and returned to second. Pat watched the game intently and Uncle Henry was chewing another cigar vigorously.

"Another hit and we're done for!" Uncle Henry gasped, his eyes centered on the home plate.

"That's a pinch hitter coming in," Pat said rather excitedly. "They call him 'Home-Run Charlie.'"

"A home run right now will settle our hash." Uncle Henry's eyes were shining. "One man on base, no outs and a pinch hitter at bat. Wow, it looks bad for Hillcrest!" he groaned.

A swift grounder dashed from the bat, the runner made first easily and the man at second advanced to third. The crowd roared. Pat was on the edge of the bench. They were changing pitchers and a man with a megaphone announced: "Hank Weddell now pitching for Hillcrest!" Joan turned to her uncle. He immediately frowned suspiciously and chewed at his cigar.

Hank walked to the center of the diamond and dug down in the pitcher's mound with his spiked shoes. A few preliminary throws and he stood facing the man at bat. Three times his arm went up with that swinging motion and three times the umpire called: "Strike!"

Uncle Henry lost all his antagonism for the young pitcher and he joined the shouting in the stands. "Atta boy, Hank! Come on, kid! Give 'em some more! Just two more times like that! You can do it, old boy!" Uncle Henry kept up

Recipe Worth Trying

Three cupfuls of golden sunshine, two cupfuls of kindness, one cupful of patience, one cupful of laughter, one-half cupful of smiles, one dozen red roses, eighteen silver raindrops, a bit of blue sky, a dash of the spice of life; mix together with a heart full of love, bake in a moderate oven, heated with the flames of truth, cool by a babbling brook, where a meadow lark is singing; decorate with a garland of wild flowers, gathered in the valley of joyful memories, where we found the four-leaf clover. Wrap in a cloak of tenderness, pack in a strong box lined with sympathy; sealed with the crest of wisdom; ship on the wings of love to the pal of your heart.—Montreal Herald.

Hardwoods and Softwoods

During 1928 American industries used over 28,000,000,000 board feet of softwoods as compared with 6,000,000,000 board feet of hardwoods. Of this amount, over 10,000,000,000 board feet was southern pine, 8,000,000,000 board feet was Douglas fir and less than 2,000,000,000 board feet consisted of oak. These figures are characteristic of the consumption of hardwood as compared with softwood.

his cheering, oblivious or the happy Pat, who watched him with evident amusement.

The next man up at bat swung at the first one, hit it up, the ball bounding in the air. Hank, like a flash, was under it. He was waiting for it and he caught it safely in his glove.

Uncle Henry turned to the man next to him, and with a broad smile said: "That young man's a friend of my niece's! He's a great ball player, isn't he?" And with that Uncle Henry sat back on the bench, well pleased with the world.

Again Hank Weddell put three swift strikes over the center of the plate, and the last man was out. A deafening roar went up from the stands.

Uncle Henry called to Pat as she dashed from her seat. He yelled at her loudly, more loudly than was necessary.

"Tell Hank Weddell we'll wait for him and drive him home!" Uncle Henry got to his feet and faced the awed crowd proudly.

"O. K. Uncle Henry. We'll meet you at the car!"

Millet for Hay

Like sudan, millet makes a hay relatively low in protein content and has about the same adaptation. For best quality hay it should be cut early before the heads get too plentiful and before they mature. The Japanese varieties yield heaviest, but the foxtail types, like the German and Hungarian, make a finer stemmed and more leafy hay. From 25 to 30 pounds of seed are required. Seed should be planted from one-half to three-quarters of an inch deep.—Hoard's Dairyman.

Breeding Mares

Breeding mares at the proper stage greatly increases the likelihood of fertility. This is one very practical fact emphasized by recent agricultural research at Cambridge university, England. These studies show that the best time for breeding most mares is the third or second day preceding the end of a period of heat. The significance of this discovery is apparent from the fact that, ordinarily, about half of the mares bred each year fail to reproduce.—Success Farming.

350 Woodpecker Types

The woodpecker is not a single type of bird, but one of a family which numbers some 350 branches. About half the species are found in the New world and about 25 species in the United States. The woodpecker is probably the greatest friend of the farmer and orchardist among the birds, for it is the most effective of all birds in keeping down insect attacks on trees, both of the forest and the orchard.

More Women Than Men

After a long period in which the male population exceeded the female by about 1,100 per 1,000, Italy still has more women than men. In the census of 1871 the proportions were 1,100 men to 1,000 women. The latest census returns show only 867 men to 1,000 women.

Wild Horse Suspicious; Precaution Is Inherited

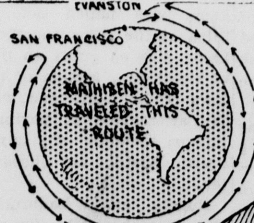

In the summer time wild horses go to drink around ten o'clock each morning. Within half a mile of the spring, or water-hole, they fall into single file, with a selected leader, and go down one of their trails in a long string, but always very cautiously, for a wild horse has inherited from his prehistoric ancestors the fear of what may lurk for him at his drinking places. While drinking, some are always on guard. They never all drink at the same time.

To protect themselves from flies they often roll in the mud and let it dry on their bodies, but this is not generally practiced among them. When quenching his thirst the wild horse will take a few swallows of water, then fling up his head and look about him to see if anything is trying to creep up and spring on him. When done drinking, he usually whisks, as if under great nervous tension, and dashes away like a thunderbolt.

Wild horses do not always go to the same spring to drink. This is sort of an innate precaution observed by many wild animals. Having drunk their fill they usually stand, or lie, near the water-hole till about four in the afternoon when they move away to their feeding grounds, and do not drink again till noon of the next day.—Our Dumb Animals.

DEFEAT WINDS UP WINTER SEASON FOR NILES

Valiant efforts of the Niles C of C's, to end their play in the Winter league with a win came to naught at Niles Sunday against the brand of baseball played by the Hamilton Meat outfit, of Hayward. When the dust settled, the score was Hamilton 9, Niles 5.

In spite of their loss, the Niles team acquitted itself well. The game was a nip and tuck affair up to the final minute.

Art. Medeiros, Niles pitcher, really deserved a win. He struck out 10, and allowed only seven hits. The score of nine was the direct result of heads-up base running. Ray Duarte, playing right field for Niles copped hitting honors with three out of four. Clarence Pine electrified the stands with sensational base stealing. He stole four.

The baseball committee, of the Niles Chamber will meet tonight with the team officials to discuss activities of the team in the coming leagues. It is rumored that the team will play independent ball until the summer games begin. A. Fields and Ted Dundas are slated to play for the Niles team in future games.

It was the intention of the team to enter the A division this spring, but developments dictate that the boys continue to perform in the B division. Niles finished in third place in the Winter schedule.

Firemen's Pedro Game Slated for Tomorrow

"Just to keep our hands in," is the answer given by Niles firemen to questions as to the purpose of their big "Pedro" tournament slated for tomorrow night at the Niles firehouse. The Mission firemen, traditional rivals of the Niles crew, are to be the opponents, and a torrid time is pending if one may believe current rumors.

According to Clarence Crane, of the Niles department, the contest will be followed by a feed. The Mission firemen were hosts last year at a similar affair in Mission San Jose. Three teams will compete.

Chevrolet Announces New Automobile Sales Policy

A new automobile merchandising policy whereby the purchaser will be appraised of the full cost of his automobile delivered in front of his door, rather than having to rely on ambiguous "F. O. B." prices, was announced at Detroit last week as effective immediately in the entire Chevrolet organization by William E. Holler, general sales manager of the company.

"We are going to take the binders off the order blank," Holler stated. "We are going to let everybody know exactly how much their cars will cost them delivered in front of their doors. We are going to show exactly what makes up the difference between the list, or F. O. B. price and the final delivered cost."

As an instance of what the new procedure means to car buyers, Holler pointed out that while list prices on the company's new 1934 models average $70 higher than 1933, the actual increase in cost to the purchaser in New York is only $40. While the list, or "F. O. B." price, throughout the United States averages 14

WORKING HOURS OF CWA LABORERS CUT TO TWENTY-FOUR

New Schedule Drawn To Conserve Dwindling National Fund

Working hours of CWA workers in Alameda county were adjusted last Friday by Major Chester R. Hunt, county CWA administrator. The new schedule which went into effect last week, will result in substantial reduction of wages paid to workers.

Work hours under new schedule will be twenty-four per week in Newark, Niles, Pleasanton, Mission San Jose, Decoto, Alvarado and Mt. Eden, and in all unincorporated districts in the county, Hunt announced, as well as in the cities.

Previous to the new order, CWA workers had been engaged for thirty hours per week. Order for the reduction in the hours originated in Washington in the office of Harry L. Hopkins, national CWA administrator, to conserve the rapidly dwindling $400,000 CWA fund so that it may last until February 10, the date originally set for its exhaustion.

Men employed on the several projects in Washington township went on the new time schedule Friday. Work is continuing under the order.

Miss Gladys Rose, accompanied by several friends, attended the opening night's entertainment at the automobile show in San Francisco last week.

IRVINGTON RESIDENTS FLEE OAKLANDER AMUCK TUESDAY

Irvington had a little bit of bedlam Tuesday morning when an Oakland man, said to be Selo Gregoris, ran amuck for no apparent reason. He almost demolished the town before he was finally subdued by Constables Tom Silva and O. W. Ebright.

On his way to San Jose with his cousin, Louis Gregoris, Selo first evidenced his mania when he began to smash crockery in the restaurant run by Hugh Henry. After screeching and frothing at the eating place, in which he broke several panes of glass, Gregoris dashed out, and into an apartment house, where he encountered good natured Bill Bauhoffer.

Bill tried to interfere and was soundly walloped for his pains. Drawn by the excitement, M. Silva, service station man, arrived on the scene in time to receive a few blows. Bauhoffer, in the meantime decided to continue his milk deliveries, and started his truck. The madman gave chase breaking a few more windows en route. In the meantime, the officers arrived and seized Selo before he could do further damage. He battled the officers all the way into the Highland hospital, where he is at present reposing in a straight jacket, pending his cooling down sufficiently for an examination.

Students of the Washington Union high school who are interested in the mysteries and maze of money, were given a chance to absorb first hand information Friday morning when W. H. Sinclair, vice president of the Bank of America, addressed them.

Sinclair, beginning with a declaration of the need for a medium of exchange, briefly traced the growth of coinage and credit up to the present time. He explained the gold standard, and the credit system, and told of limits to which credit could be expanded.

Sinclair told the students of the necessity of credit, stating that it was the life blood of the present financial and business system. He stated that the need and use of credit formed one of the bases of present day life.

WASHINGTON B FIVE TOPS LEAGUE HEAP WITH WIN FRIDAY

Livermore Light Team Beaten; Centerville A Quintet Loses

The Cornhusker "B" cagers climbed to the top of the league heap Friday night at Livermore when they decisively whipped the Livermore B's in a contest fraught with thrills. The final tally was thirty-four to seventeen.

Opening the contest with a fusillade of buckets, the Livermore team leaped to a seven point lead in the first minute and things looked dismal for the Centerville lads. Superior floorwork, and a keen eye for the iron proved its value, however, and half time saw the Huskers out in front fifteen to ten. With a steadily mounting Centerville score, the game became a little grab in the closing minutes. The starting Centerville lineup was: Sekigahama and Fudenna, forwards; Witherly, center; Reina and Dusterberry, guards.

The Washington high A quintet was not as successful in their flurry with the Cowboy unlimiteds. Final tally was forty-three to thirteen in favor of Livermore. The Centerville A's, as in all their games so far displayed a clean floor game and nice passing until near the board. They could not hit the hoop, Coach Regli plans to have them hitting the bucket before many more contests pass.

The starters for the A go: Muniz and Yamashita, forwards; Habericht, center; Rathbone and Kato, guards.

Johnson's All Stars Win First Game of Season

In a close and exciting game the Johnson's All-Stars defeated the Hayward night school basketball team by a score of 31 to 30 in a game played at the Hayward high school gym Monday night of last week.

The All-Stars played several teams from Hayward. Every quarter of the game a fresh new team was sent in. The score at the half time was Hayward 16 and Johnson's 13.

Both teams played on even terms throughout the game. It was not until the last twenty-five seconds of play that a Pleasanton man shot a field goal, scoring the winning point.

The game was speedy and clean, refereeing was exceptionally good. Manager Ed Vervais stated. Henry Vervais showed some fine work at guard and was responsible for holding the opponents from running up a high score on the All-Stars.

The lineup and points scored by the All-Stars is as follows:

	Points
George, f	8
Azevedo, f	5
Silva, f	5
Powers, c	8
H. Vervais, g	3
Ed Vervais, g	3
Kruse, g	2

At present the boys have no games on schedule but manager Vervais is looking for some future contests.

ABATEMENT COST IN DISTRICT CUT 33 PER CENT IN '33

Salt marsh mosquitoes, of the lean and hungry variety that in previous years tormented the residents of the south county, were conspicuous by their absence in 1933, according to the annual report released this week by H. F. Gray, Mosquito Abatement District engineer.

A few of the buzzing insects migrated inland from undrained portions of the Dumbarton marsh late in October and bothered the local denizens, but subsequent draining of the offending areas will prevent a recurrence of the visitation.

Total expenditures of the district showed a 33 per cent reduction for 1933 over 1932.

Of the remaining 3,266 acres of undrained marsh in the district a large portion is expected to be drained during the spring by Civil Works projects and Federal Pest Control work, the report said.

VETS WILL ENDORSE JUNIOR POST FOR SONS

Twelve Niles youngsters received the rudiments of patriotism last Friday night, when veterans of the American Legion Post No. 195 brought their sons to the initial meet of a Father-Son Club at the Veterans' Memorial building in Niles.

The twelve youngsters expressed enthusiasm at the gathering and enjoyed themselves fully with their veteran dads. Comrade Al Grenwald, of Oakland, state head of the new movement, outlined the purpose to the boys. The evening was spent afterwards in games and a general good time in the Memorial auditorium. Refreshments were served.

Although all indications point toward an endorsement of the Sons' Post by the dads, the matter will be definitely settled on February 14, when the post holds its next regular meet, according to Manuel Swartz, post member.

back. That's France. But not so strange; there is little stamina in America any more. Europe has spat on us and made us like it. With eleven billions of our money, and accrued interest running up into another ten billions, England, France, Italy and a few more welchers, are setting pretty while this nation gets deeper and deeper into debt. It was a Democratic administration that lent that money to Europe and a present California United States Senator of the same stripe that shoveled our gold out of the United States Treasury into the laps of the beggar nations of Europe. Then why expect the same party to even try to collect. Anyway, that thought aside, it can't be done except by force of arms, and no sane man, even though he is hungry and desperate wants to start a war. There's hell enough as it is "getting by."

Low Prices Slow Up Cauliflower Harvest

A slump in prices last week slowed down the harvest of winter cauliflower in Washington township. With a large acreage still to be cut, activities were almost at a standstill this week, although the price had strengthened a little. Shippers in the local area, after a busy time during the first of last week, were shipping small amounts early this week.

Farmers in the district, who realize what a gutted market means, predict a poor season for peas this spring. Prices last year were at bed-rock and lower, but local enthusiasts have increased the acreage this time. It is generally thought that "the early bird will get the worm" this season.

Mrs. Jennie Herger Passes Away At Oakland Hospital

Funeral services were conducted at the St. Augustine's church by Rev. Father Patrick Hennessy Monday morning for Mrs. Jennie Herger, of Hayward, who passed away at an Oakland hospital late Friday afternoon.

Mrs. Herger had been ill for the past two weeks and died following an operation. She was the wife of Rudolph Herger, formerly of Pleasanton, but recently of Hayward.

She was the daughter of Mrs. Linda Richards, of Pleasanton. She was born and educated there. Mrs. Herger was thirty years of age at the time of her passing. She leaves six children, the oldest being twelve and the youngest almost two years old.

Funeral services were conducted Monday morning from the Richards' residence under the direction of the Sorensen Brothers, of Hayward. Burial took place at the St. Augustine's cemetery.

Her pall bearers were Bonnie Nevis, Andrew Clitron, Alfred Higuera, Anthony Mezza, of Pleasanton, Vincent Marino, of Stockton, and Anthony Fields, of San Jose.

She leaves to mourn her passing her husband, Rudolph, and six children, Evelyn, Ruth, Pauline, Gilbert, Rudolph, Jr., and Leo Herger; five sisters, Mrs. Victoria Bieler, Mrs. Chris Rogers, Misses Adeline and Katherine Shanave, of Pleasanton, and Mrs. Sophie Pacheco of Hayward, and three brothers, Victor, Frank and Louis Shanave of Pleasanton.

Charles Kelsey, one of the pioneers of Washington township, once tied a chair to his harrow, in order to sit in comfort and sow his potatoes broadcast. The experiment was not successful, it is said.

Did You Ever Stop To Think

By
Edson R. Waite
Shawnee, Oklahoma

PIERRE C. BANE, NATIONAL ADVERTISING MANAGER OF THE LOS ANGELES HERALD-EXPRESS, SAYS:

"During the past few years we have seen shrinkages in values of all kinds. However, it is interesting to note that Good Will has never suffered a "mark-down."

"Newspaper advertising as a builder of Good Will is without parallel. I like to compare newspaper advertising campaigns with the operations of heavy artillery units in the army. For example, when the introduction of a new product is underway, or where conditions of competition are particularly keen, a heavy bombardment of copy comparable to the action of the heaviest U. S. Army guns, the 12-inch rifles, used for heavy battery efforts, is the effective method. Where the objective is supplementary, or the sustaining of Good Will, the '155 mm. gun' type of publicity could be successfully applied. While, in the case of a follow-up campaign, or 'flash' copy, the '75 mm. gun' type of campaign is indicated, for, in this case, the resistance is nominal.

"It is likely that during these days of recovery newspaper advertising is proving effective to a greater degree than ever before. The reason lies in the fact that the flexibility of newspaper advertising permits the advertiser to meet conditions as they develop from day to day, plus the fact that the public is 'news minded' to an exceptionally high degree at the present time.

"EACH DAY, THEREFORE, THE FACT THAT NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING IS ONE OF THE MOST VITAL FACTORS IN OUR ECONOMIC LIFE IS BECOMING MORE APPARENT."

Why Liquid Laxatives are Back in Favor

The public is fast returning to the use of liquid laxatives. People have learned that the properly prepared liquid laxative will bring a perfect movement without any discomfort at the time, or after.

The dose of a liquid laxative can be varied to suit the needs of the individual. The action can thus be regulated. A child is easily given the right dose. And mild liquid laxatives do not irritate the kidneys.

Doctors are generally agreed that senna is the best laxative for everybody. Senna is a natural laxative. It does not drain the system like the cathartics that leave you so thirsty. Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is a liquid laxative which relies on senna for its laxative action. It has the average person's bowels as regular as clockwork in a few weeks' time.

You can always get Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin at any drugstore, ready for use. Member N. R. A.

NOTHING DOES SO MUCH FOR SO LITTLE AS YOUR TELEPHONE

A single telephone call may be worth more to you than your telephone costs in a lifetime

WHEN split-seconds count, who shall measure the telephone's value? When odor of smoke or crackle of flames occur,—when a doctor is needed—what serves so swiftly, dependably?

But your telephone's value goes far beyond emergencies. It reaches neighbors, friends in town, markets.

A telephone does much—costs little.
